The Scheme of a Local Bank for this Colony with Branches at the most important places in China, has been in contemplation for a very long period The local and foreign trade in Hongkong and at the open ports in China and Japan has increased so rapidy within the last few years that additional Banking facilities are felt to be required. The Banks now in China being only luanches of Corporations whose head quarters are in England or India, and which were formed chiefly with the view of carrying on exchange operations between those countries and China, are scarcely in t position to deal satisfactorily with the local trade which has become so much more extensive and varied than in former years. This deficiency the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Company will supply, and will in fact assume the same position with relation to this Colony as the Presidency Banks in India, or the Banks of Australia in their respective localities. The Establishment of a Mint in Hongkong, corry out its operations, and the almost certain disappearance of the existing Compradoric system. (so far as money is concerned) will also ensure Banks becoming in course of time the exclusive medium for the transaction of the monetary opeother local associations in China clearly shews London and China. that the largest profits are obtained by those The Corporation issue Drafts on the Bank of local body of Proprietors or Shareholders whose
